

Living Well with Dementia Masterclasses

Person Centred Approaches

Tuesday 20th October 2015,
Northridge House,
St. Luke's Home,
Mahon, Cork

These Masterclasses are aimed at Healthcare Professionals working with older people in Residential & Acute settings.

An Bord Altranais (Category I) accreditation pending.

find us on Facebook
www.stlukeshome.ie/education-centre

2 Masterclasses focusing on aspects of Dementia Care

Tuesday 20th October 2015

Morning Masterclass
(9.30am to 12.30pm)

Engagement in Meaningful Activity for Residents with Dementia
- Putting Theory into Practice

Speaker: Ms Marissa Butler

Marissa Butler is currently Director of Nursing of a HSE Residential Unit for Older People. She has worked as an Advanced Nurse Practitioner (Candidate) in Dementia and has a special interest in promoting Person Centred Care approaches for Older People with Dementia.

Price
€50

Afternoon Masterclass
(1.30pm – 4.30pm)

Focusing on Culture Change
- "it's the little things that make the difference"

Speaker: Prof. Jan Dewing

Professor Jan Dewing is Head of Person Centred Research & Practice Development, East Sussex Healthcare Trust, Lead for Kent, Sussex and Surrey Dementia care Innovation Hub & visiting Professor University of Ulster.

Price
€50

* €90 for those booking both Masterclasses

Contact Details

Ms. Claire Coakley, Northridge House,
St Luke's Home, Mahon, Cork.

T: 021 4536551 E: claire.coakley@stlukeshome.ie